

BDK Canada Graduate Scholarship Application Form

1) Name in full (with family name first):

Male

Female

2) Citizenship status:

Canadian citizen

Landed immigrant

Other

(Specify and explain eligibility)

3) Date of Birth

4) Present academic status (name of your university, department, programme, year):

University

Department

Programme

Year

5) Present address (with telephone number, email address, and fax number):

Address

Email

Fax

6) Permanent address (if different from the above)

7) Field(s) of study in which you have specialized in the past (describe concretely and in detail):

8) Educational background above High School level

Institution Dates attended Degrees received Major fields

--

9) Teaching Experience (if any):

--

10) Academic Awards and Honours:

--

11) Publications (also list the title of your graduation thesis and/or dissertation):

--

12) Reading knowledge of Classical Buddhist languages:

Evaluate your level by writing the appropriate number after each language,

1) =no functional knowledge, 2)= elementary knowledge, 3)=good knowledge,

4)= excellent knowledge.

Sanskrit: Chinese: Tibetan Other (specify)

13) Japanese language background (classical and/or modern), if any. State the name of the institution where you studied, and how long:

14) Name of the university or institution in Japan with which you desire to be affiliated, and the name(s) of the professor(s) you have contacted:

15) Names of three persons whose reference letters accompany the application in sealed signed envelopes (including your supervisor and a Japanese scholar based at the Japanese institution where you propose to study).

Applicants from the University of British Columbia, University of Calgary, McMaster University, University of Toronto, and McGill University must include a letter from the member of the Selection Committee representing his or her institution.

i) ii)

iii)

16) Describe the project you propose to carry out in Japan (attach a copy of your dissertation proposal if you plan to engage in dissertation research while in Japan):

17) Career goals (briefly describe):

18) Previous overseas travel:

I certify that all information provided on this form is correct to the best of my knowledge.

Applicant's signature

Applicant's name and date